

CARTOON PHYSICS

You are a group of retired cartoons from different genres living in a shared home that is under constant peril.

PLAYERS: CREATE CHARACTERS

1. Choose a genre for your character: Action, Comedy, Magical Girl, Martial Arts, Military/War, Mystery, Romance, Sports, Thriller/Horror
2. Choose a role for your character: The Brains, The Brawn, The Heart, The Instigator, The Lancer, The Leader, The Wacky One
3. Choose your number, from 2 to 5. A high number means you're better at CARTOON (silliness, wackiness, deviation from how things really work). A low number means you're better at PHYSICS (seriousness, real-world logic and, well, physics).
4. Give your character a cool name that fits your genre.

PLAYERS: CREATE THE HOUSE

As a group, pick two strengths for your home: Alive, Bigger On The Inside, Butler Included, Fanciful, Fortress, High Tech, Mobile, Unusual Altitude (Clouds, Cavern, or Under Water),

Also, pick one problem: Antagonistic Neighbors, Haunted, Hungry, Requires Constant Maintenance

ROLLING THE DICE

When you do something risky, roll 1d6 to find out how it goes. Roll +1d if you're prepared and +1d if you're an expert. (The GM tells you how many dice to roll, based on your character and the situation.) Roll your dice and compare each die result to your number.

↓ If you're using CARTOON (silliness, wackiness, deviation from how things really work), you want to roll under your number.

↑ If you're using PHYSICS (seriousness, real-world logic and, well, physics), you want to roll over your number.

0 If none of your dice succeed, it goes wrong. The GM says how things get worse somehow.

1 If one die succeeds, you barely manage it. The GM inflicts a complication, harm, or cost.

2 If two dice succeed, you do it well. Good job!

3 If three dice succeed, you get a critical success! The GM tells you some extra effect you get.

! If you roll your number exactly, you have CARTOON PHYSICS. You get a special insight into what's going on. Ask the GM a question and they'll answer you honestly.

Some good questions:

What are they really feeling? Who's behind this? How could I get them to _____? What should I be on the lookout for? What's the best way to _____? What's really going on here?

(A roll of CARTOON PHYSICS counts as a success.)

HELPING: If you want to help someone else who's rolling, say how you try to help and make a roll. If you succeed, give them +1d.
